THE DAILY SENTINEL

RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON,
PROPRIETORS.

Under the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co.

MILWAUKEE:

Tuesday Morning, May 26.

Shipments from Milwaukee.

In our Market Review, this morning, will be found a full and carefully revised table of the shipments of Wheat and Flour from this port, for the present season to date. It will be seen that the amount, in the aggregate, to 87,315 bushels of Flour and 793,120 bushels, or, reducing all to wheat, to one million, two hundred and twenty-seven thousand, seven hundred and forty-five bushels; worth, at present prices, more than a million and a half dollars. The amount of Wheat and Flour shipped from Milwaukee thus far this season, is triple what it was last year, and is far in excess of the amount shipped from any other port on the entire line of lakes.

Corn Exchange.

A large portion of the dealers in grain have agreed to meet this morning, and daily hereafter, from 9 to 10 o'clock A. M., at the Board of Trade, Room in the basement of the Newhall House, as a place of exchange. We understand that nearly all of the platform men have agreed to come into the arrangement. The place is nearly central between the two principal depots, and we are confident that the arrangement, if carried out in a liberal, and business-like manner, will be a great benefit and convenience to buyers and sellers, shippers and vessel-men, alike.

The Political U. S. Judges.

With what grim injustice Chief Justice Taney is assailed by the Black Republicans, "political judges," and from the fact that, instead of ministering to the necessities of any party by the speedy publication of his opinion in the Dred Scott case, he waited until the curiousest reporter could publish it in the Washington Daily. He did not then stand in the country, as the degenerates of his speech, for political effect.

But, there are political U. S. Judges, and those who, with innocence and exceeding vanity, give their opinions to the newspapers, to encourage Republican resistance to the leading party. They, if any portion of the Court, are guilty of tampering with popular delusion and catering to a political party.

News of Sunday.—Here is another sample, we suppose, of "gen- uine Democracy." Chief Justice Taney is condemned for withholding his opinion in the Dred Scott case, from the public press, and Judges Curtis and McLean are censured for "indirect hate and excessive vanity" in making their public! In this country of newspapers and newspaper readers, this doctrine sounds strangely enough. We had always supposed that the Judge who had made an important decision on questions of general interest, rendered an acceptable service to the community at large and to the profession in particular, by making public his decision, and the grounds on which it was based with as little delay as need be.

Indeed Judge Miller has more than once "burst upon the country," through the columns of the Newspaper, of his "opinions," and that, too, without being rebuked for "indirect hate," or "excessive vanity." We do not wonder, however, that the Newspaper should complain of the too "speedy publication" of Judge Curtis' opinion, and appearance of that of Justice Taney. Yet, like it would have been better pleased had neither of them ever been "burst upon the country." The Sham Democracy, in that event, would have escaped the uncomfortable dilemma in which they are now placed; being compelled to choose between repudiating the Dred Scott decision, or recanting all their voluminous professions in favor of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

The State Treasury.

Mr. D. W. Jones, the Secretary of State, under date of April 26th, makes public in the Milwaukee Argus of Friday last the Quarterly Report to the Governor of the condition of the State Treasury. From this report it appears that on the 31st day of March last, the end of the first quarter, the State Treasury contained $108,349.92, as follows:

Wisconsin Fund—Receipts $55,119.00
Gold and Silver Coin... 78,320.91

Total $108,349.92

The transactions in the several Funds during the quarter are thus stated:

General Fund—Receipts $258,304; Payment's $228,044; Balance on hand $49,448.

School Fund—Receipts $88,192; Payments $154,017.

School Fund Income—Receipts $141,020; Payments $123,340; balance $32,640.

University Fund—Receipts $2,185; Payments $19,127.

Seaway Fund—Receipts $86,050; Payments $1,630; Balance on hand $14,265.

Of this last balance 75 per cent belongs to the School Fund, from which loans had been made in anticipation of the transfer from that to the School Fund.

There is a decided improvement, as well in the financial condition, as in the management of our State affairs, since the change of Administration last year.

Off the TRACK.—The Sentinel, of Saturday, gives an account of the Iowa Democratic convention, quoting from a Know nothing paper, the New York Express, a copy of nothing, written by "SAM," no doubt.—Americans.

The Americans charged the Sentinel with making "false assertions" in stating that Sam and Sam, the Know Nothings and Democrats, had voted together at the recent Iowa election, and challenged us for proof. We produced them immediately, and from unquestionable authority. And now the Americans "backs out" of its attack, in the above "funny" fashion, lamenting that "it is impossible to draw the Sentinel into any argument."

Our COUNTRY EXCHANGES.—Our apology is made to the Manitowoc Tribe, Richland County Observer, and Grant County Herald, for inadvertently overlooking their requests for the Daily Sentinel in exchange. We will be sure to send them, as of old. If we have accidentally omitted others of our country contemporaries, on our daily or tri-weekly exchange list, we will thank them to notify us.

Coot, GERMANY.—The Cincinnati Gazette publishes a letter of despatch from Cleba, writing to the editor of the Wisconsin, to his paper in this city, and heads the extract thus:—"What they think of us in the Provinces?"—"Provinces!" indeed! Come up to Milwaukee, Mr. Gazette, and see a little of city life. One should not mistake us."

The DISPARAGE.—In western New York it is worth $24 per ton; in this country it is worth $34.00—Mercurial Express.

Bale your hay, and send it along, good friend in Marquette county! It is worth $22.80 per ton there. That leaves a reasonable margin for our daily or tri-weekly exchange list, we will profit surely.

We rather like the pleasant way the Milwaukee Sentinel has of crediting Whitewater to the Whitewater Register.—Reg.

A mistake entirely, neighbor. The Whitewater Register is one of our best exchanges, and we mean to give it credit; always, for its own merit.

The friends of Hon. John P. Hinckley will be glad to learn that he has entirely recovered from the National Hotel sickness, and looks as robust and healthy as ever.

MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 26, 1857.

Interesting from the Red River Geum.

The Toronto Globe publishes a series of letters from Captain Kennedy, giving a great deal of information concerning the climate, soil, people, trade, manners and customs of the people of Wisconsin to sustain their chief city—Milwaukee. You can buy your goods there on as reasonable terms as elsewhere, do so by all means. All the help you extend to Milwaukee will necessarily be given to you, in the interests of your State, which, though you perhaps suspect, depend on the growth and increase of your commercial capital. To encourage your own, is in all cases sound policy, and in this case the dictates of the clearest wisdom.

But we are digressing. Read the following, and if you want a daily, subscribe for one from Milwaukee, in preference to one from any other city whatever.—Whitewater Register.

We have already copied the article from the Horizon Argus to which the Register alludes, and which it so handsomely endorses. We thank our brothers of the country Press for their good words and kindly sentiments towards Milwaukee and the Milwaukee dailies, and we shall study to reciprocate their good offices.

Milwaukee.—The Milwaukee journals might possibly find it to their interest to try the New London Times as an advertising medium. Some of our merchants trade in Milwaukee largely, and as they generally look to us for our supplies, and to us for our products. Send us along your goods, and we will do them justice.—New London Times.

The Times is a live paper, published at New London, Waukesha County, a region of our State which is filling up rapidly with the best kind of population and the most desirable of customers for Milwaukee merchants.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The time table of the Michigan Central Railroad going eastward has been changed. The trains now leave Chicago as follows:

Mail Express, 5 A. M.
Lighthorn Express, 6 A. M., arriving at Detroit at 7 P. M.

Evening Express, 3 P. M.
Night Express, 9 P. M.

DELAWS NOT ALWAYS DANGEROUS.—The British Ambassador, from New Orleans, which put into Key West, in February in distress, and sailed thence to Liverpool with two steam pumps, arrived some time since, with eight feet water in the hold, the pumps having broke down. Owing to her detention the cotton on board was reduced to 30 to 24 days. It will, of course, be very much shorter after the contemplated improvements about the engine room.

The seafarers are not without hopes of being able to go to Superior City, where they expect to find a much cheaper market, or to find a city where they can sell their surplus.

It is expected that a steamer will be dispatched to the Red River, if not this summer, at least in the summer following, certainly; as contracts are entered on to convey the lumber thence to the Great Lakes.

The Americans have already opened a road to Fort Verde, the Red River, as it goes, at which next summer the American (British) settlers will be able to get their supplies.

For I, wrote to you from St. Paul, will be ready by this time, we will be able to cope with the Americans.

Another is a steamer to be built at Superior City, which is to be named the Champs Elysées, and is to be 100 feet long, 20 wide, 10 deep, and will be built of iron.

The rules for the various exhibitions are given in full in the circular just issued, and the Executive Committee have resolved to carry them out this year, to the letter.

Thielberg's Concerts.

We have received from our reliable friends their report that Thielberg's First Concert in the City comes off tomorrow evening at the Hall of "the Alzano." There are plenty of good seats yet to be secured at Hempstead's, it will be the first musical entertainment of the season.

How in the GERMAN THEATRE of SUNDAY NOVEMBER.—The German Theatre, in Market Hall, was the scene of a disgraceful row Sunday morn., which was not only directed on the stage, but in the pit and gallery, and all over the theatre generally, the audience and the Police taking the most active part in the performances, which were by no means of Shakespearean interest. The actors were compelled to remain in the modern drama, even to the point of being forced to leave the stage, and the curtain was closed.

The managers attempted to restore order and peace, but the curtain rose, and one of the favorite acts—a scene of pure comedy, and other up-sets of certain actors, that made two antagonistic parties, composed of the actors, and those who attended their entertainments, each party applauding and upholding their favorites, while they try equally hard to ruin those of the other side.

For Sunday evening a play was publicly announced, but when the curtain was drawn, one of the managers stepped forward, and stated that owing to the indisposition of some of the actors, (Wolff), the favorite of one of the parties, they would be obliged to substitute another play for the one announced for the evening. The friends of Mr. Wolff were very much annoyed at this, and the other party, composed of the actors, and those who attended their entertainments, each party applauding and upholding their favorites, while they try equally hard to ruin those of the other side.
